

Please reject further media consolidation. The only way to keep a free society free is to encourage diversity and free expression of a variety of programming/news coverage. Consolidation has already gone too far, and the internet is not an additional option when the internet news comes primarily from same sources as broadcast